

Lucas County, Ohio for feasibility-hydrologic studies: $500,000 from the FEMA pre-disaster mitigation account leading to the design and construction of recommended flood control structures along the Ottawa River in Lucas County, Ohio. This project would help alleviate flooding and improve the quality of life along a major tributary which has been severely polluted.

The entity to receive funding for this project is Lucas County Engineer One Government Center Toledo, OH 43604